

Five-Minute Job Extension Request

Original estimate: five minutes. Confidence: exceptional.

Job that was supposed to be simple

Person who said "easy"

01 / SCHEDULE RECONCILIATION

Time spent so far

Time spent finding the right tool

New estimate

02 / UNEXPECTED DEVELOPMENTS

- | | |
|--|---|
| ☐ The right part is on the wrong truck. | ☐ The bolt head is now impressively round. |
| ☐ The drawing has a newer drawing. | ☐ One adjustment became disassembly. |
| ☐ The tool was borrowed "for a second." | ☐ A quick question became a meeting. |

03 / CURRENT STATUS AND REQUESTED SUPPORT

- | | |
|---|---|
| ☐ Nearly done. | ☐ Nearly started. |
| ☐ One uninterrupted thought, please. | ☐ Bring back the original estimator. |

What does "five minutes" mean this time?

SCHEDULING DETERMINATION

Extension granted. Retire the phrase "real quick."

Revised due date: after the next unexpected development.